Thrasher-Flowers

The wedding of Miss Eula Thrasher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Thrasher of Barthell and Connie Flowers, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Connie Flowers of Bowling Green was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the First Baptist Church. Dr. Preston L. Ramsey officiated at the impressive double ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Bernice Lindley, organist, presented a program of wedding music including "Ave Maria", "One Alone", "Clair de Lune" and the traditional wedding marches.

The bride chose for her wedding a dress of winter white lace and faille with black velvet accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Marvin Hall, matron of honor, wore a brown wool suit with gold accessories and a yellow rosebud corsage.

Allen Hogg served as best man.

The bride is a graduate of McCreaty County High School and Rogers School of Business. Before coming to Somerset several months ago she was employed by the Veterans Administration, Louisville. She is now employed as secretary in the offices of the State Employment Service here. The groom is a graduate of Glasgow High School and Western State College, Bowling Green. He is an instructor in the Somerset Vocational School.

After a wedding trip to the Great Smoky Mountain National Park they are making their home at 412 E. Mt. Vernon Street.

Adolph Kunze of Belleville, Ill., to Major Joseph Koger, son of Mrs. J. Koger of Somerset. The wedding was solemnized Wednesday, November 7, by a Methodist minister in Piggott, Ark.

The bride wore for her wedding a brown suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Millstadt High School and was employed until recently by Princess Peggy, Inc. Major Koger attended Somerset schools and has served eleven years in the Air Force, five years of that time being spent in Newfoundland.

The young couple will live at San Antonio, Texas, while Major Koger is stationed at Kelly Air Force Base.

Avera-Sidwell

Miss June Colyer Avera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Avera of Shopville became the bride of Major Sidwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Sidwell of Monticello, at a ceremony solemnized at 8:30 o'clock Saturday night, November 10, at the home of her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Colyer on Monticello Street.

The Rev. H. L. Patrick, of Fellowship Methodist Church at Shopville, read the nuptial service at the double ring ceremony. White chrysanthemums and pink rose buds, ferns and lighted white tapers in cathedral candelabra with twining ivy before the fireplace formed the background for the exchange of vows. A program of wedding music was presented by Miss Ruth Linville, vocalist, and Miss Margaret Mulenix, pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of ivory satin fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves and a full skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a Dutch cap of ivory satin. She carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums and gardenias tied with satin streamers. Miss Mary Frances Eads of Monticello was maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue net over taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, cap sleeves and full skirt. She carried a bouquet of colored chrysanthemums.

Paul Conley of Monticello served as best man. Ushers were John Davidson and Frank Taylor of Monticello, and James C. Chestnut, cousin of the bride.

After the wedding a reception was held. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth, and was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake decorated with white roses and flanked by white lighted tapers, ivy and pink rose buds. After the traditional cutting of the cake by the bride and groom, guests were
