

Wilson-Shepherd Vows Exchanged Friday Night At Camp Ground Church

In an impressive candlelight service Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Camp Ground Baptist Church, Miss Mary Catherine Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Meriel Wilson of Route 1, Somerset, became the bride of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shepherd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Shepherd also of Route 1, Somerset. The Rev. W. L. Sanders officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Forming the background for the ceremony was an altar banked with palms and decorated with tall baskets of white gladioli and lighted tapers in seven branched candelabra. The vows were exchanged beneath an arch entwined with plumosus fern and white satin ribbon.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Carol Graves, pianist, and Mrs. Clarence Vaught soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Vaught sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh Promise Me." Miss Graves also played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white Chantilly lace over satin fashioned with fitted bodice low scalloped neckline embroidered with seed pearls and long pointed sleeves. Her full skirt featured a satin sash at the waistline which extended the length of the short train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a purple throated orchid and showered with satin streamers knotted with forget-me-nots.

Mrs. David Hall, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of pale blue lace and net over taffeta made with fitted bodice and low off the shoulder neckline. The full skirt featured tiers of ruffles of the lace and net. She wore a small hat made of the material of her dress, short white mitts and carried a colonial bouquet.

Mrs. Hollis Dalton, another sister of the bride, and Miss Sue Shepherd, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. They wore floor length dresses of turquoise and pale pink lace and net respectively made identical to that of the matron of honor's. They wore small half hats of the material of their dresses, short white mitts and carried colonial bouquets.

Roger Shepherd, brother of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Hollis Dalton and David Hall.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the R.E.A. Building. The bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Victor Sutton and Mrs. Homer Wheelon presided at the punch bowls and Miss Jo Ann Sutton served the cake. Miss Leslie Withers was in charge of the bride's book.

Mrs. Wilson chose for her daughter's wedding a sheath dress of light blue lace over taffeta, white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Shepherd, mother of the groom, wore a dress of light blue dacron with lace jacket, white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Pulaski County High School where she was a member of the Future Homemakers of America. The groom is a graduate of Franklin Township High School, Indianapolis, Ind. He is an employee of the Amstutz Hatchery here.

Following a wedding trip South the young couple will be at home at 212 E. Limestone Street. The bride chose for her going away ensemble a sheath dress of white pique with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

Osborne-Inman Nuptial Vows Said June 24

The marriage of Miss Sylvia Sue Osborne, daughter of Dr. George R. Osborne of Maysville and Mrs. Robert E. Young of Indianapolis, and John Bruce Inman, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Inman of Louisville, was solemnized at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the College of the Bible chapel at Lexington.

The Rev. Olynn Burke of Maysville officiated.

The bride wore a dress of Chantilly lace over petal pink satin. A fitted bodice formed a point in front with a wide flowing skirt gathered at the waist. Long pointed panels with scallops of lace formed the hemline which was covered with seed pearls. The flat collar of scalloped lace circled the low-cut neckline which was covered with seed pearls. The skirt was fashioned into a chapel train. The bride's veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible covered with a white orchid.

Miss Shirley Frey, Indianapolis, Ind., was maid of honor wearing a dress of pink silk organza over taffeta with a sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. The waist was corded and the skirt had open pleats at top, narrowing at the hemline to make a slim effect skirt with bouffant effect through the hipline. She carried a bouquet of baby breath tied with pink satin ribbons.

The bridesmaids, Miss Susan Archer, Shelbyville, Tenn., and Miss Mary Hays Inman, Somerset, wore costumes identical to that of the maid of honor's.

Stanley Rullman, Aurora, Ind., served as best man. Buddy Rosenberger, Louisville, and Neil Dougherty, Dayton, Ohio, cousins of the bridegroom, were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Reception Hall in the College of the Bible.

After a short wedding trip the couple will live in Lexington for the summer. The bridegroom has accepted a teaching position in the fall in Louisville where the bride will study her senior year at the University of Louisville.

The bride was graduated from Howe High School in Indianapolis. She attended Transylvania College where she was a member of Chi Omega sorority and president of Phi Beta music fraternity. She also was a contestant in the Mountain Laurel Festival and Miss Kentucky contest.

Mr. Inman was graduated from Atherton High School and Transylvania where he played basketball. He received his B.A. degree from Transylvania this month where he was a member of Phi Kappa Tau fraternity. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Inman of Louisville, formerly of Somerset.
