FRANKFORT, (KEN.)

PRINTED FOR WILLIAM HUNTER,

By JOHNSTON & PLEASANTS.

1811.

This act confirmed the proceedings which had taken place under it, provided that it should not avail as an assignment of error, directed when courts should be held in future, and gave an additional term. These last provisions, however, were superseded by the passage of the circuit court law.

1802.

CHAPTER LIV.

An ACT authorising the payment of a certain detachment of Militia.

Approved November 23, 1802.

Some Indians had come into Livingston county and stole horses; in consequence of which, the colonel commandant ordered out the detachment of militia, for the payment of whose services and rations, this act provided.

CHAPTER LV.

An ACT for the benefit of John Metcalf.

Approved December 1, 1802.

He had been security for the sheriff of Bourbon, who had become insolvent; and Metcalf, as this act says, had been compelled to pay the whole of the arrearages. Morrow, in his settlement with the auditor, had offered a warrant, which the auditor refused to admit, under an impression that it had been altered from 60 dollars to 80 pounds. This act entitled Metcalf to the benefit of said warrant, at one of 60 dollars.

CHAPTER LVI.

An ACT to provide for opening a Road from Richmond, in Madison County, to Goose Creek Salt-Works, and from Pulaski to said works, and to Outlaw's.

Approved December 21, 1802.

This act appointed commissioners, empowered them to raise money by subscription, and recover it by motion.

CHAPTER LVII.

An ACT for establishing the Seat of Justice for the County of Bracken.

Approved December 21, 1802.

This act fixed on Augusta, as the seat of justice, and directed the county court to proceed to erect the public buildings.

CHAPTER LVIII.

An ACT for the relief of Samuel Todd's heirs.

Approved December 7, 1802.

Flour and whiskey of Samuel Todd's, of the value of 1061 dollars, had been impressed for the Wabash expedition. This act directed payment, with interest from the 21st of December.
