

PULASKI.—Rev. J. R. James will preach for the Baptist church at this place another year....Mr. Gilbert Waddle and Miss. Julia Epperson, daughter of Mr. David Epperson, was married today at the residence of the bride's father by Rev. J. R. James....Mr. Andy Beaty, familiarly known as "Uncle Andy" fell dead at Mr. John Wait's Monday morning while walking across the barn lot. He had been in very fair health, but was somewhat crippled with rheumatism. He was about 78 years of age....The store house at Elihu, owned and kept by Bruce Gover, was burned Sunday night, together with the entire stock and about $250 in money. The post-office was also kept in connection with it. The total loss is about $2,000, with no insurance....Messrs L. D. Parker, James Denton, James Langdon, Samuel Tate and Judge Tartar are being talked of by their friends as probable Republican nominees for the State Senator. W. B. Pettus, Will C. Curd and Judge J. G. Stephenson are also talked of on the Democratic side....

That hunting party came back Saturday night, after a ten-days' successful hunt. Seven fine deer were killed, and if it had not been for the rain more probably would have been killed. W. W. Tate killed two, he and Harvey Sloan, one between them, and Harvey Sloan one, George Wait one, Charley Parker one, and the driver one. The one killed by Mr. Wait was a very large buck and weighed perhaps over 200 pounds.—News.
